

REMINGTON HOTELS TO MANAGE FORT WORTH'S FIRST LE MÉRIDIEN HOTEL

Leading hotel management company partners with Blueprint Hospitality on the redevelopment of the former Hotel Texas Annex

DALLAS (February 16, 2022) – Remington Hotels announced today that it has signed an agreement to manage Le Méridien Fort Worth, a redevelopment of the 13-story historic building formerly known as the Hotel Texas Annex, conveniently located in downtown Fort Worth.

In partnership with premier real estate investment and development company Blueprint Hospitality, Remington Hotels will oversee day-to-day operations of the city's first Le Méridien, a Marriott International brand known for its playful sophistication and timeless chic design. The redevelopment of the 189-room hotel, which kicks off in January 2022, is slated to open in 2023. The property will sit adjacent to the Hilton Fort Worth, another Remington Hotels' property.

Le Méridien will excite guests through a phenomenal experience and fresh look, with planned improvements led by Premier and Sandvick Architects, Inc. The historic reimagination includes new ground floor restaurants and a rooftop bar, 3,000 square-feet of meeting space, and a refresh of sixth floor pool deck. Le Méridien Fort Worth will also boast thoughtful details including nods to cartography and mapping alongside a masterful combination of rugged Texas bravado and European flair to offer a mid-century-inspired build that fits within the hotel's surroundings.

"We are delighted to partner with Blueprint Hospitality on this project to restore the historic building in the city's epicenter," said Sloan Dean, President and CEO of Remington Hotels. "Le Méridien is a wonderful addition to our portfolio as we expand throughout the state of Texas and continue to build our presence within the luxury and lifestyle space."

The addition of Le Méridien Fort Worth marks the property management company's sixth property in the Dallas-Fort Worth metroplex.
